Paddock Publications Extends Invitation To Fascinating Cooking School

Entertainment and Instruction Linked in Free Hollywood Production at Arlington Theater

There is always something new under the sun.

Entertaining proof of that statement will be presented by Paddock Publications, which is bringing to Arlington Theatre, a motion picture that pioneers in fresh, stimulating treatment of the oldest and most important subject in the world —Homemaking.

Long ago the Cooking school graduated from a curiosity to a popular necessity in many parts of the country. Now it has graduated again, leaping this time into Hollywood stardom.

For this is no routine lecture, no methodical demonstration which the Paddock Publications will give to the women of the community for three days without charge, starting Tuesday, February 9.

The Paddock Publications take a genuine pride in being among the first to sponsor "The Bride Wakes Up" a full-length feature picture, directed and filmed in Hollywood, with a competent cast to interpret the appealing story.

Experienced housekeepers will thrill to the adventures of the winsome bride, whose husband begins to boil when he finds that she can't even boil water. But this bride is blessed with resourceful determination, even though the faithful servant in her girlhood home made every effort to spoil her.

What happens after the honeymoon is over? What happens when the bride becomes aware of the critical gaze of some of her husband's old sweethearts, who are not apt to forget heavy biscuits in a hurry?

To unravel the mystery in advance would be to rob this clever tale of its novel approach.

Showing every person in every theater seat the triumphant new 1938 Cooking School, direct from Hollywood, will be no problem, for motion picture ingenuity has joined forces with scientific homemaking to produce an original laboratory course that deftly combines romance, sprightly humor, originality and profitable instruction.

All of the popular features of the former Cooking School are here. The free recipe sheets, the atmosphere of congenial informality, the wise counsel, the hints on clever short-cuts, the up-to-the-minute suggestions for entertaining, the demonstration of delicious and nourishing dishes, the array of modern kitchen equipment and the distribution of daily gifts and real surprises.

All those elements of fun and profit have been retained, and all are made doubly worth-while because every guest of Paddock Publications will have an individual close-up of every process.

This scientific new laboratory of ideas has graduated out of the class where hundreds of women craned their necks in a vain attempt to see what was happening on the stage, or assailed the lecturer with plaintive cries: "Hold it up high, where we all can see."

Now the camera will make the course truly fascinating and valuable, with remarkable close-ups of each process in a series of model, conveniently equipped kitchens; real, workable kitchens, (not the synthetic, false-front variety), where trained homemakers will plan, measure, blend, mix and complete appetizing cakes, pies, salads and meat dishes that look as though they could be picked right out of the picture and eaten on the spot.

Keeping pace with the baking, roasting and frying, a series of salads and frozen delicacies will parade in and out of the adaptable electric refrigerator, which will reveal its host of possibilities for simplifying labor and marketing, and contributing to good health and good food.

What to do with left-overs? How to take the gloom out of laundry day? How to save time, energy and temper in meal preparation? How to be attractive in spite of the daily rush? How to make the pie-crust that men love to eat? How to give first-aid to fallen cakes?

It won't be necessary to ask the questions, for expert home specialists have anticipated these very problems. They know what bothers many an experienced housekeeper, because it is their job to know and to counsel helpfully.

And the camera has assembled all that sound information—not as a routine lecture, not as a formal "highbrow" demonstration, but as a real Romance of Homemaking, full of suspense and charm, and informal chats from-one-good-cook-to-another.

What about the story and what about the cast?

Some familiar Hollywood faces will be recognized in this production, which was filmed and directed in one of the famous West Coast studios. The heroine is a winsome bride, who shares the perplexities of many an older housekeeper. Actually the title should be "It Might Happen Here," for the human story has universal appeal. And it might have happened right in this community.

Numerous nationally know firms and progressive merchants from our own community are joining with Paddock Publications in making the entertaining school available. They promise a daily harvest of generous gifts and surprises, which will be distributed in addition to the useful recipe sheets.

Tavern Men Must Appear Before Board

Will Be Questioned Relative To Obedience of Local Ordinances

Four Arlington Heights tavern owners will have the opportunity to explain to the members of the village board February 7, why their licenses should not be revoked on account of their continued disregard of provisions of the local ordinances. Officer Heideman, backed by Chief Skoog reported recent occurances and personal experiences of the police with the tavern owners.

The village clerk was directed to forward registered letters to the tavern owners asking them to appear before the board. Mayor Flentie expressed his willingness to revoke any licenses that the board thought advisable.

Owners of the Sherwood subdivision, located north of Arlington Park subdivision presented a request for the aid of the village in setting up a relief project to provide sewer and water for part of that subdivision. The owners have agreed to pay all costs including fee of village engineer for preparation of estimate. The board will await all data before concurring in the project.

A report of the test of the new fire truck by the National Board of Underwriters was read by the clerk.

The purchase was authorized of a portable stretcher for use of caring for sick or injured persons while being transported in the police car.

Commissioner Wm. Luehring presented an inventory of all equipment and supplies of the street and water departments, amounting to $6,748, including vehicles.

Bills and payroll amounting to $1,868.84 were approved for payment.

The routine reports of the department were placed on file. Fines of $81 were reported by the police department. Four inch water mains have been put in place 336 feet on So Highland.

Mount Prospect Bank Introduces Insured Personal Loan Plan

One of the newer innovations in banking circles, an insured personal loan service, is being inaugurated by the Mount Prospect State Bank, it has been announced by William Busse, Jr., president and chairman of the board.

The plan involves a blanket policy with an insurance company, in which the bank insures the lives of personal loan borrowers. Banks with this new form of insurance are relieved of the necessity of collecting an unpaid balance from the estate of a borrower who dies, or from his co-maker. Instead, it notifies the borrower's family and co-maker that they have no further obligation.

The plan, President Busse pointed out, eliminates hardship on a borrower's family in case of death; helps a borrower to obtain a co-maker for his note, and strengthens the position of lender, borrower and co-maker.

This is an annual trip for Miss Wilke and enables her to present the latest in women's apparel at an advance date. While in New York, she will also purchase her spring stocks of merchandise.

No Delay In Construction Of School

Contractor Able To Follow Schedule Of New Building

While residents in the vicinity of the Arlington Heights north side school know that cold weather, or nothing else seems to hinder the construction of that new building, there are many school patrons who are not aware of the activity that is around the site of that new building.

Construction work started December 10, five days after the opening of the bids and has progressed very satisfactory to the board of education and the government who are jointly responsible that the children of Arlington Heights are given a worth-while building.

At the present time the footings are all in, the foundation walls are poured and the forms removed, and an exterior coating of waterproof materials has been applied. The interior brick work around the boiler room has been built up to one story height. Sewer connections are now being made. The cut stone water table has been set and the laying of the face exterior brick has been started. The basement window frames are now being placed.

According to Mr. J. F. Danley, the Government resident engineer inspector on the job, the work has been well planned and organized so that from now on construction will proceed with the least possible delay, weather permitting.

Various types of materials as well as many other details connected with the actual getting under way have been taken care of.

The school board holds frequent meetings to consider minor changes in the plans and with the consent of the government, authorizes those which will mean a better school building.

GOP Endorses Members of County Board

William Busse and his four colleagues, Republican members of the county board, were endorsed for re-election this week by the Republican Central committee of 15 slatemakers, who are attempting to work out a harmony program for the coming primaries and fall election. The endorsement was not made without a bitter squabble as George Nixon, who has recently moved to Glenview is seeking a place on the county board from the country towns. He has the backing of National Committeeman, George F. Harding.

The majority of the slate makers held that the party should endorse the five now holding office—William Busse, George A. Miller, Carl J. Carlson, William N. Erickson and H. Wallace Caldwell.

Moore Leads Fight

County Chairman Edward F. Moore led the battle to support the five present commissioners, while Judge Oscar F. Nelson, holding the proxy of his ward committeeman, Max Landesman, fought in behalf of Nixon. Moore won by a vote of 10 to 5.

The five county commissioners previously had been overwhelmingly endorsed for renomination by the committeemen of the country districts.

After the battle Nixon's supporters declared that he will be a candidate anyway from the country districts and probably also for president of the board and hinted at the possibility of a complete slate for county offices.

Seek 500,000 Members

A drive for 500,000 members has been launched by the Young Republicans of Cook County as part of the state organizations campaign for 1,000,000 dues-paying members by 1940. In Cook County the campaign will be directed by Otto M. Webb, executive secretary of the local young G. O. P.

The mobilization will follow regular precinct and ward procedure, it was explained, with the objective being a statewide organization of trained precinct workers "to carry the fight for representative government under law to every householder in Illinois." John E. W. Timm has been named assistant general director.

St. James Choir Plan Winter Frolic At The Chicago House

St. James choir, Arlington Heights, is making elaborate plans for their mid winter frolic to be held at the Chicago House, Wheeling, Saturday evening, Feb. 19. For the occasion, the committee in charge has selected Ray Jaeker and his orchestra to furnish the music.

It is a public affair and group parties are welcome to attend. Admission price is 50 cents per person.

Cookie Demonstration At Angeloff's Saturday

The Bremmer Biscuit company is putting on a demonstration at Angeloff's Food Mart, 5 W. Campbell, all day Saturday. The company will have on display a complete line of cooky products. The public is cordially invited to attend.

SO, THAT'S THAT

An Arlington Heights boy only 21 years old, was taken to the county jail by Chief Skoog Tuesday because his father (he has no other family) nor any of his acquaintances were willing to pay a fine that had been asssed against him a few weeks ago. That boy will spend 21 days in that jail. He will be finger printed, measured and in the files of the police, will be given the label of a criminal.

There is no question that unless society in this particular case does something, this boy has been given a good start upon a life of crime. The local police gave him every consideration. As a protection to the public he was originally arrested. He had used a gun to frighten other residents. The whole trouble occurred either in a tavern or adjacent thereto. If we said that liquor sold in a local tavern is the direct cause of starting this boy upon a life of crime, there would be hundreds of Arlington Heights citizens, who would say, "no."

LET'S CHANGE THE SCENE . . . It was at last Monday's board meeting that the police department formally presented to the board four complaints against four local tavern keepers, whom they stated were not abiding by the local ordinances. In the complaint against one of the tavern keepers (and it happens to be the same tavern where the above referred to shooting occurred, either within or without), the officer was practically told to mind his own business, was figuratively ordered out of the building, the key turned in the lock the lights remained on and the celebration continued until two a. m.

If we found fault with that tavern keeper, we would be labeled as a radical dry by hundreds of Arlington Heights people.

BUY WHY PICK ON ME? will probably be the inquiry from the above tavern when its owner reads this story.

WE MUST NOT SHOW ANY PARTIALITY, SO HERE IS SOME MORE . . . Complaint against a tavern in the center of the business section was based upon the practice of "customers" appearing at the "family entrance" on Sunday mornings. In reply to inquiry from the Herald if such charge is true, we were told, "they can not prove a thing."

Charges against a tavern on the Highway were to the effect that owner (who has no restaurant license) claims he has a right to sell sandwiches after hours. The police say that they have not enough men to station an officer on the premises to be certain that nothing is sold to drink with those sandwiches.

The fourth complaint was "a little cheating" on the part of another tavern, also located upon the highway.

WE WOULD NOT BE SURPRISED if hundreds of Arlington Heights people will say, "let the police mind their own business."

SO THAT'S THAT.

Willert Beer Appointed Attorney For Mt. Prospect

Willert Beer has been appointed attorney for the Village of Mt. Prospect and will assume the duties formerly performed by Hugo J. Thal, who has resigned as village attorney.

For many years, Attorney Thal has handled the legal affairs of the village with complete satisfaction, but of late his many other duties have consumed so much of his time that he feels that the legal work here can better be handled by a local man.

Arlington Pastor Is Among Leaders Planning For Methodist Council

The Rev. Chester W. Loughlin of Arlington Heights is one of the group of 500 leaders of the Methodist Episcopal church now busy with plans for the United Methodist Council on the Future of Faith and Service, to be held February 3, 4, and 5 in Chicago.

He is a member of the committee on cooperation of conference secretaries and chairmen and secretaries of conference world service commissions.

The Council, called by the General Conference Commission on Evangelism and the Million Unit Fellowship movement, two agencies of the church, will be one of America's principal observances of the 200th anniversary of the founding of Methodism. The meeting, as its name implies, also will begin plans for the church's third century in order that it may meet the challenge of the future.

The committee expects more than 4,000 representatives of the church, from throughout the United States, to attend. There will be no specially elected delegates and all council sessions will be open to any Methodist who registers. Registration fee is one dollar.

Fire Truck Approved By Underwriters

Passes Severe Test Given by Representative Of National Board

Arlington Heights new fire truck has been approved by the National Board of Underwriters. The test was given last week and the official report was received by Mayor Flentie on Monday. A comparison of the contract requirements and the test are:

1. 500 gallons per minute at 170 pounds—two hours test showing 507 gallons a minute at 124 pounds.

2. 250 gallons at 200 lbs. pressure—half hour test showing 256 gallons at 205 pounds.

3. 167 gallons at 250 pounds—half hour test showing 178 gallons at 251 pounds.

Test was conducted at draft from the lower lagoon at the Arlington Park race track on January 12, 1938. Operation was under the supervision of Delivery Engineer J. B. Slaughter of The General Fire Truck Corporation. Outside temperature ranged between 15 and 20 degrees F.; weather conditions were cloudy. Motor temperature was maintained between 175 and 180 dgrees F., without the use of cooler. Performance was satisfactory, and motor appeared to be in good condition on completion of test.

After the test was completed, a fracture appeared in the top part of pump casing, which is to be replaced. Since this can be accomplished without affecting any of the integral parts of the pump, the break will have no effect upon the test already completed.

(Signed) G. T. Cook,
Engineer, The National Board of Fire Underwriters.

Arlington Driver In Palatine Hospital With Fractured Skull

John Rosch, 215 North State road, Arlington Heights, is in the Community hospital at Palatine with a skull fracture as a result of a crash upon the icy pavement. He was driving west on Euclid avenue, lost control of the car at Highland street and crashed into a electric pole with such force that the car was badly wrecked and he sustained serious injuries.

Hagenbring's Sell Out Print Materials; Will Have More Soon

Demand for dress print materials as advertised for Hagenbring's 5c to $1 store last week was so great that it did not take long for the entire lot to be removed from sale. Hagenbring has put in another order for like materials and will have them on sale again soon at the same price.

Work socks were delayed shipment last week but are now a part of the merchandise on Hagenbring's counter this week. They are advertised in this issue.

Passengers Protest RR Schedule

A recent change in the mid-day time schedule by the Chicago and Northwestern railroad drew a protest from many residents in Arlington Heights, Palatine, and Barrington this week when a delegation met with railroad officials in their Chicago offices, Monday afternoon.

Clifford Schapanski of Arlington Heights, and H. K. Tucker of Barrington presented petitions of 450 names signed by passengers of the trains under protest. The present schedule is said to have disagreed with those workmen who are employed on the customary 4:00 to midnight shifts.

The railroad turned a sympathetic ear to the complaints, but said it was unable to return to the old schedule because of the loss incurred under that system, according to Mr. Schapanski.

In an endeavor to gain more information, the C. & N. W. is polling the 12:29 and 3:15 (leaving Arlington Heights) Wednesday through Saturday. Passengers on those trains may be able to convince the railroad officials of the advisability of altering the train times once more. But if it does not, Schapanski and Tucker have delcared that they will place the matter before the Commerce Commission in Chicago.

The schedule has undergone the following changes: (according to Arlington Heights time table) the 12:04 replaced with the 12:29; the 12:59 eliminated; the 3:04 replaced with the 3:16.

The 3:16 takes 54 minutes to get to Chicago, and arrives too late to be of any good to most of the passengers who have been taking it for reason of employment.

Schapanski reported that the North Western had received numerous complaints of the present schedule from other sources as well. Officials were not reluctant in showing them to the petitioners, but maintained that nothing could be done.

Arlington Police Use Own Fists To Stop Street Fight

When Officer Wm. Heideman picked up a six foot motorcyclist by the nap of the neck and laid him across the hood of an auto, the fighting spirit of that young man and his fellows left them and Officers Karstens and Heideman were the winners in an old fashioned street fight that tied up a mile of traffic on the highway Sunday evening when the crowd was returning from the ski meet.

It all started back in Palatine where it is claimed by motorcyclists that the car driven by Clark Botkin had sideswiped the motorcycle of John Loedwig. Botkin did not stop and was followed to Arlington by the motorcyclists. The stop sign at Vail street stopped the calvacade. The autoist hastily locked his doors as the motorcyclists ganged upon him. Loedwig climbed to the hood of the car and kicked in the windshield.

Botkin emerged with a crank but Officer Heideman and Karstens were immediately upon the job and with manly strtngth, soon subdued the fighters.

Both men were fined ten dollars.

Arlington Church Reports No Deficit For First Time Since Depression

St. John's Evangelical congregation of Arlington Heights held its annual business meeting Sunday, January 9.

It was revealed that for the first time since the depression no deficit had occurred in the local church treasury due to increased giving on the part of the church membership. Contributions to the Synodical Budget (larger Kingdom Work) showed an increase of 25% over that of the preceding year.

A substantial gain in the church membership as well as a large increase in the number of new members receiving the Christian literature of the denomination was an encouraging report given. Renovations in the church as well as the beautification of the church premises took place last year.

Due to a lack of time, the amendments to the Constitution as well as the church building plans could not be considered, but will be considered at some special meeting in the future.

The following officers of the congregation were elected: President, Mr. Emil F. Baumgarten; recording secretary, Miss Delilah Kost; financial secretary, Mr. Herbert Hammerl; treasurer, Mr. Frank Runge; trustee, Mr. Charles Pingel; and Deacon, Mr. Herman Becker. About eighty members were in attendance at this meeting. Installation of the new officers was held on Sunday, January 16, during the regular church service.

Alderman Schneberger Has Big Responsibility

Alderman George Schneberger has always supposed that the responsibility of producing the wealth in the United States was a job for the fellows at Washington, but Monday he received the following which puts the job entirely up to George, himself. He asked his fellow aldermen at the board meeting Monday night for suggestions. They had no answer.

500 Voters Can't Vote At Primaries

Indifference To Registration Means Disfranchisement

Five hundred is considered a conservative estimate of the number of residents of Wheeling township who will not be able to vote at the April primaries. Failure on their part to register under the new permanent Registration system means that they can not go to the polls.

The last day for registration with local officials is January 20. Workers in both of the major parties have put forth every endeavor to get the voters upon the registration lists. They still have the opportunity to register prior to March 20, if they visit the county building, Chicago, but a comparative small number will travel to Chicago for that purpose.

One of the results of the permanent registration in Wheeling was the discovery that there are 250 aliens in the township, many of whom have been voting contrary to law.

In Palatine township there were about 400 voters who did not register on registration days.

The registrations with the town and village clerks since that time has been light and there are probably over 300 voters in the township still not registered.

There will probably be an intensive drive by both parties during the summer to get every voter on the registration lists.

Arlington Society and Club Events

Mrs. Eugene Phillips, Book Reviewer, Speaks At Woman's Club

The Arlington Heights Woman's club enjoyed a most interesting program Wednesday, Jan. 19, at the club room in the Methodist church.

Mrs. Eugene Phillips of Woodstock, Ill., who is a well known book reviewer, brought to the club members a renewed interest in books.

She gave a vivid, fascinating picture of India as portrayed in Louis Bromfield's book, "The Rains Came." Besides the human interest and picturesque side of the book, the one big serious theme is "What's the Matter With England In India." Mrs. Phillips recommended it as a marvelously fine book.

Mrs. Phillips repeated the remark that "The World will lay its ail at the feet of those who have mastered the use of words." That describes the work of Sally Salminen in her Helsingfors prize novel "Katrina." A story of life on the island of Erland which is just across from Finland. "This book will make us think more kindly of all human beings," says Mrs. Phillips.

"Look Eleven Years Younger," by Gellet Burgess, was the third book she discussed. "Youthfulness is Our Action, Old Age is a Habit." To be youthful is not easy, you must be competitive. But the most important Mrs. Phillips brought out, was if you want to be youthful, you have to accept change."

The Seventh District meeting of the Woman's clubs at Wicker Park Woman's club was attended by Mrs. Noyes, Mrs. Thomas Wilson, Mrs Wm. Jahn, and Mrs. Karl Militzer, the club delegate. Mrs. Militzer gave a most interesting report of her impression of the morning session, stressing the report by the Radio chairman and the presentation of gavels to all the clubs of the 7th district which was first in the number of acres planted to trees in the National Conservation program of our government in southern Illinois.

Several dates for club members to keep in mind are as follows: The Federation Fund Festival at Hotel Sherman, Feb. 3; the Book club on Thursday, Jan. 27, at Mrs. Eugene Heller, 2:30 p. m.; the Reciprocity day invitations from So. Edgebrook Woman's club on Feb. 4; Portage Park Woman's club Literary Tea at 1:30 p. m.; the Albany Park Woman's club Feb. 28; and the Woman's Columbian club, Feb. 3, 2 p. m.

At the close of the meeting a social time was enjoyed. Refreshments served by Mrs. Frank Rogers and Miss Elizabeth Heller.

Parent's Hear of Social Evils At P. T. A.

A large group of parents listened spell bound to Mrs. Clifton Timmons who told of the perils of the time, confronting our children, and made suggestions to combat them, at the January meeting of the Parent-Teacher association, Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Timmons said that much delinquency in minors is due to the example of adults, set the pattern if we want our children to do their best. 89 per cent of criminals are under the age of 19 years.

Organized vice moved into the country during the depression, when taxing bodies felt they had to cut all municipal and community recreation projects, and the public do not realize when community projects are curtailed that the tax usually goes to build a new wing at Pontiac and other reform schools. A child's first offense if it is minor, puts him on probation, after that if they are sent to the reform school, when they are released they are skilled in some form of criminology, rather than made a good citizen.

Mrs. Timmons spoke of the wide spread use of the marihuana weed as a cigarette among the youth of the day. This cigarette is spread by members of vice rings throughout the country, and today there are 22,000 youth under 21 in the Chicago area lone, who are addicts, and one out of every sixty, in the United States is an addict. These cigarettes are peddled around the high schools and after a boy or girl has smoked ten of these, he has formed a non-breakable habit. Mrs. Timmons suggests that we be sure that if the child must smoke, that he be sure that the cigarettes are stamped, for the marihuana is not stamped and also is different in that it is tied at both ends.

The way to keep your children from corruption about them, Mrs. Timmons suggested is to get as close to your children as possible, provide places at home where they can bring their friends and where father may play with them. While we are worrying about stocks and bonds that are not paying dividends we should be happy in the realization that we have a bond in our children that is clippable each day in the year when they say "good morning mother and dad."

Music by the Girl's Glee club of the high school sang numbers, under the direction of Mr. Donald Costain.

The fourth grade at the North school won the room award and the first at the South school.

Junior League Hears Talk on Mexico

The Junior League met in their usual meeting place last Monday evening, Jan. 10, and had the pleasure of hearing Miss Ruth Price, a teacher of Woodstock, give a talk on Mexico. The meeting was in charge of the education chairman, Miss Laughlin.

Mr. Elliott, who has been ill for some time, is showing some improvement.

Mr. and Mrs. George Glow moved Monday into their new home, which they recently purchased in Scarsdale. The house was formerly occupied be the Harrah family.

Ninety-one Years

Mrs. Elizabeth Hallen celebrated her 91st birthday anniversary Tuesday. Her room in the Rest Home was made bright and cheerful with flowers, when her daughter, Mrs. S. F. Muller and other relatives and friends gathered to wish her "happy birthday" and bring sunshine despite the cloudy weather. It was a memorable day for everyone.

American Legion Auxiliary Notes

The January social meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary was held at the home of Mrs. Albert Russell, Jan. 18. Despite the icy walks, 17 members were present to enjoy the tasty luncheon and its accompanying jollity.

Mrs. Pope came from the city to be present. After the luncheon she was the recipient of a shower of handkerchiefs. Our 9th district National Defense chairman had prepared a sketch, in the form of essays on West Point and Annapolis, which was presented by two high school girls, Shirley Platte and Lois Bokelmann. The sketch was well presented and contained much information. The girls are going to repeat the performance at the 9th district meeting on Thursday which will be held at the Eugene Field Park Field House.

A group of six from Merle Guild Unit went to Palatine Tuesday evening to attend the Palatine Auxiliary Bingo party.

Buffalo Grove Girl Weds

Miss Helen Raupp, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Raupp of Buffalo Grove, became the bride of Mr. Harry Obrest, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Obrest of Chicago at a beautiful and impressive service last Tuesday morning at 9:30 at the St. Mary's Catholic church in Buffalo Grove. Miss Raupp entered the church on the arm of her father who gave her in marriage, to the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March.

The bride's dress was made of white satin with a long train. Her veil of white net fell behind her in long, graceful folds and she carried brides roses and lilies of the valley. The groom wore a dark business suit. The bridesmaid, Miss Bernice Brehm of Arlington Heights, was gowned in peach colored satin and carried talisman roses. The best man, Raymond Raupp, brother of the bride, also wore a dark business suit. The church was decorated with lighted Christmas trees, white talisman roses and white carnations. Rev. Father Becker of the St. Mary's church officiated and the church choir sang softly during the service. Immediately following the wedding friends and relatives numbering sixty went to the home of the bride for the reception and wedding dinner. Merry-making continued throughout the day and in the evening a large number of friends and relatives attended a dance in honor of the newly married couple at Firnback's hall.

The groom is employed by the Creamery Package Co. of Arlington Heights and the young couple will make their home for the present with the bride's parents in Buffalo Grove.

Missionary Society Meets

The Missionary Society of the Methodist church met at the home of Miss Laura McElhose Monday evening. Mrs. J. E. Best led the devotions and Miss Lydia Hausam led the topic "American Share Croppers." Mrs. Crofoot read a topic on "Mohammeds in the Christian Schools." At the close of the program, a social time was enjoyed and the hostess served unusual and intriguing refreshments.

O. E. S. Plan Card Party

At the stated meeting of the Order of Eastern Star of Arlington Heights last Thursday, it was decided to hold a card party after the meeting on Jan. 27. This party will be open to the public and a charge of 25c will be asked. The party will be held at the Presbyterian church on Jan. 27 at 8 p. m. Plan to fill a table and attend. Table prizes will be given and refreshments will be served.

Talks To Garden Club Members

Another instructive and interesting evening was spent by members and friends of the Arlington Heights Garden club on Tuesday evening, Jan. 11, when Mr. Gustaf A. Lindberg, superintendent of the Park District of Oak Park gave a practical talk and showed beautiful colored slides of landscaped parks, playgrounds, estates and homes in Oak Park.

Under Mr. Lindberg's supervision, Oak Park probably has more landscaped areas than any other village and this has been made possible through foresight in laying out the streets and subdivisions.

Careful selection of grass seed and the proper fertilization and cultivation of the soil before planting the seed has resulted in an abundant growth of grass which resists the trampling feet of the public which are never barred from these parks. Oak Park never permits a "Keep Off the Grass" sign to appear in any of its parks.

Mr. Lindberg's talk was full of helpful suggestions and was greatly enjoyed by all present. It is hoped that he will come again. Despite the inclement weather a good attendance was recorded and several new members affiliated themselves with the club.

Local Woman's Club Takes Active Part In Reforestation Program

The General Federation of Women's clubs of the entire country are sponsoring a reforestration program in southern Illinois for the prevention of floods and soil erosion. They are working in cooperation with the United States Forest Service, who furnish the land for the planting of pine trees. Enough trees to reforest an acre, approximately 336 trees, may be purchased for two dollars and fifty cents.

The Department of Conservation of the Illinois Federation under the direction of the seventh district conservation chairman, Mrs. A. O. Larson, brought honor to the Ill. Federation of Women's clubs by winning a general Federation contest, that of an award to be presented to the State planting the greatest number of trees between November 1 and April 1. Between those dates the Ill. Federation planted 161,316 trees on 480 acres, helping to form the green band which will stretch across southern Illinois.

In honor of this accomplishment, the U. S. Forest Service has had 1,081 gavels made by the C.C.C. boys in various camps throughout the country, to be presented to each Federation club throughout the State of Illinois.

They are made of choice woods from various parts of the United States at the seventh district meeting held last week in Wicker Park, Mrs. B. A. Noyes, president of the local Woman's club was presented with a gavel for the local club, made of black walnut from Wisconsin, and the Junior Woman's club of Arlington Heights was presented with a gavel made of white pine from Oregon. These gavels are stamped with the seal of the U. S. Forest Service. Mrs. E. E. Byerrum, state conservation chairman, made the presentation.

It is the plan of the Forest Service to add as rapidly as possible, large demonstrational areas along the highways. The Ill. Federation can be very proud of their present accomplishment, as they have already reached over half of their goal, to plant a thousand trees.

The Arlington Heights club have taken an active part in this reforestration project and have planted at least one acre a year. At the last meeting of the club it was voted to plant two acres in honor of the memory of their founder, Mrs. Walker who recently passed away, and in planting these trees they feel that a perpetual memorial has been established in her honor.

January Birthdays

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Miles were hosts last Saturday evening at Edgewater Beach Hotel to twelve guests in honor of several friends whose birthdays come in January. This is an annual affair.

The quartette of January children at this meeting were Mrs. Helene Leech, Mrs. Jack Scurry, Mr. Homer J. Byrd and Mrs. Miles. The garnet and snow drop are the gem and flower for January's child, the fragrance and color of violets, roses and gardenias, gave an alluring setting to this formal affair, where every detail for a banquet was complete.

The Gleaners Circle of the Methodist church will meet at the home of Mrs. Wm. Harth, Mrs. Thomas, assisting on Jan. 26 at 8 o'clock.

Mrs. Orval Baldwin entertained several friends in honor of her sister, Mrs. Howard Lipps, last Thursday evening. Bridge was enjoyed at two tables. The hostess served refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. Lama of Stonegate entertained some friends from Chicago for an Italian spaghetti dinner, Sunday evening. They were Mr. and Mrs. Thayer, Mr. and Mrs. McCoy and Mr. and Mrs. Cuppage and children.

Mrs. Thomas Cooper entertained at a lovely dessert luncheon Thursday afternoon. Bridge was played at five tables.

Mrs. Harry Sebert was hostess to her bridge group Friday afternoon, for dessert.

Mrs. Marshall Pate is in the Lutheran Memorial hospital where she has had her appendix removed.

Emery Baxter, who had his tonsils removed at the Evanston hospital, Saturday, is home and doing as well as could be expected.

The third grade students of the North School were fortunate in having an interesting speaker this week. Alan Stroker's uncle, Mr. William Erb, of New Mexico, spoke to the children about the Pueblo Indians of the Southwest.

Mr. Erb exhibited some lovely Navajo rugs, made by the Indians, and some Indian jewelry made of turquoise and silver.

Patrol Boys Safety Court

The Patrol Boys of the North School are having a Safety Court every week on Friday. A Safety Court is a place where students come who have violated the school safety rules during the week.

Mr. Baker, the superintendent, talks to the students who have been reported.

If any person violates the law more than twice he has to have one of his parents come to school and attend Safety Court.

Election

The North school has formed a Student Council. On Monday, the tenth of January, much campaigning was done. On almost all of the school bulletin boards and school doors were seen campaign cartoons.

Three parties had candidates for the offices, consisting of president, vice president, secretary, and sergeant-at-arms. All gave speeches which were very sincere and influencing. On Tuesday ballots were distributed and the pupils of the fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth grades elected Marjorie Moodie president; James Scott, vice president; Marian Hardtke, secretary, and Billy Griffith, sergeant-at-arms.

Everyone is sure these people will do their best and will have the cooperation of the pupils.

The election officials were Orville Bolte, Richard Maloney, Bob Lacina and Margaret Allison.

IT HAPPENED HERE

During the recent near-zero weather an elderly lady, loaded with books, was having trouble at the library door. Officer Skoog, resplendent in uniform, stepped to her rescue, gave her kindly assistance and waited to see her safely up the stairs. Your reporter was the gratified witness of this little act of courtesy — more power to the law! . . . The English sparrows being rationed on a friendly porch roof are cadgy; the lady who feeds them says they assert their nationality by refusing to eat Norgest-flatbrod—but then the Norse handle relief differently, if that has anything to do with it . . . A Kentucky cardinal was seen a few days since, aflame and gorgeous in Jarvis wood—just up for the holidays, we are told . . . Squirrels, bluejays, starlings and downy woodpeckers add life and color to the snowy scene . . . Three small boys out with their skis doing—telemarks, we think—anyhow, it left marks everywhere, front, back and upside downs . . . Ever ride heard on a baby? Only one and a half years old, but already a runner-up for the sprite who offered to put a girdle round the earth in forty minutes . . . turned over and set upon her feet, her idea is to put the galoshes in the fish bowl or vice versa . . . or a hair brush and a wet wash cloth suggest scrubbing the floor . . . she collects perfume bottles, powder boxes, tin cans, the dog's drinking dish, the pea that rolled away, doilies and a cup of coffee in one and one half minutes flat . . . like a blue eyed seraph sits gazing up at the sky and waving treetops . . . she is only wondering what she could reach before it is taken away . . . super collector of stars, moons and suns! . . . Aftermath of Christmas is the pretty basket of Wo Lung tea from the Chinese laundry man, so anxious is this humble servitor to take part in the customs of the country—wonder how many occidentals extended the social courtesy of so much as a pinch of tea to this member of a little understood race . . . The post man who visits our door daily has brought us such a wealth of loving messages, of news from the outside world, of important documents (and an occasional bill) that we accord him the respect and reverence due a faithful arm-legs?—of the Government . . . There is a nestful of snow in the top of the large maple—King Winter looking into the housing situation? . . . Will the boy who was eating a piece of cake while he piloted the lady across the icy street, tell us what kind of cake it was?

S'Amuser.

The only person to take advice from when you are sick is a doctor. He is trained to help you—to diagnose your ailment and prescribe for you.

Help him all you can. Answer his questions thoroughly. He cannot tell what is hurting you. You have to tell him exactly how you feel, how the pain developed, how much it hurts, where it hurts and all about it. Then your doctor is able to determine the source of the pain. This is necessary in case of extreme headache, fever, and ailments in which there are no exterior symptoms as in the case of broken bones or wounds.

When the doctor gives you a prescription, have it filled by a registered pharmacist at the Rexall Drug Store. The Rexall Pharmacist is trained to cooperate with your doctor.

He fills every prescription with fresh, potent ingredients. He double checks it to assure accuracy. And, he prices it reasonably.

Look for the Rexall Store Sign.

QUESTIONS THAT ARE ASKED ABOUT BANKING

"Do Bank Examiners examine your Bank?"

YES, bank examiners visit our bank periodically and go over our records.

These government officials are representatives of the State or Federal banking authorities. Every incorporated bank in the United States chartered to conduct a banking business is examined. They are visited without advance warning and the examiners have immediate access to all of the bank's cash, securities, books and records. They report at considerable length on the bank's assets, liabilities, methods, policies, loans, investments and other factors which determine its soundness. On the basis of the reports of these examiners banking authorities are able to make any suggestions or recommendations they feel are necessary or desirable.

Bank examinations are an added safeguard for depositors' money—in addition to the competent management and sound banking practices of the bank.

Flynn Installs Finest Registration System

by RAYMOND T. O'KEEFE, JR.

Michael J. Flynn, County Clerk of Cook county has just completed installation of a permanent registration system that is termed by experts "not the first, but the finest system in the country." After extensive study and observation of "honest ballot" plans operating in other parts of the nation, Mr. Flynn incorporated the best features of each into his own fool-proof, fraud-proof system.

Chicago has had its permanent registration in effect for over a year but the rest of the county initiates its own setup in the forthcoming April primaries. "Already it has eliminated dead-men's votes, dual registrations, and other illegal votes from the election lists," Flynn said, "and above all has disclosed that thousands of aliens have heretofore been casting ballots regularly."

Prominent men including doctors, lawyers, dentists and even some important public officials never knew they weren't citizens until permanent registration challenged them to state the date of their naturalization papers and the court wherein they were issued, Mr. Flynn declared.

A common misunderstanding arose when a son believed his father had completed naturalization before he attained his majority and it later developed he was over 21 when his dad's last papers were finally awarded. Still others thought they had the right to vote because they came to this country when very young. Many more were misled by the belief first papers made them citizens.

With the pride of a father extolling the virtues of his child, Mr. Flynn points out the superior features of the plan as it operates from his office in the County building. Proudly he explains the operation of his new safe-like, fireproof master files wherein is kept an accurate and up-to-the-minute record of every voter registered in the 82 country towns under his jurisdiction.

"Just call off a name and I'll have his complete voting record for you in less than five seconds," he challenged.

"Schiacchitano?" Without hesitation he pulled out one of the 2,632 drawers containing the registration cards and immediately located the desired name. Through the aid of a simple code employed by the "Soundex" system he quickly located such "stickers" as Berzynskis, Albaduska, Blaszcenski, Szynikiewez, or what have you.

He explained that there are 13 variations of the name of Smith, 14 of Kelly, and 36 of Baer, but that under the new system which groups consonants instead of vowels, all are grouped under one reference. Automatically, Flynn said, dual registrations were detected. When a voter moved from one precinct to another the change was quickly apparent and corrected.

Each registrant in Cook county is required to fill out registration cards in triplicate—the first goes into the master file; the second into the precinct file for county elections; and the third is kept by village officials for local elections. Each contains the voter's signature which must be attached at the polls before he receives a ballot.

Uncle Sam does his bit in keeping the records accurate. Immediately after the registration card is received a personal canvass is made to check on its validity. This is followed up by a non-forwardable card sent through the mails. If an error in the name or address has been made the card will come back to the county election office and consequently invalidate the registration.

Uncle Sam also checks on voters who haven't cast a ballot for four or more years as revealed by their record on the registration card. They are sent another non-forwardable card, which if returned indicates that the registrant has moved from the precinct.

Printed precinct lists naming each voter in the district are prepared by Flynn clerks for free distribution to any who want them. This is the first time this service has been given in the history of the county. These lists are supplemented by special sheets sent out to the country towns DAILY showing recent additions and subtractions caused by deaths or change of address.

Registrations are piling into Flynn's office at a brisk rate and will continue to do so until the deadline, January 20. Errors on the cards, however, have been remarkably few. This is attributed mainly to the thorough instructions which County of Cook Judges and Clerks underwent before the inauguration of the system. Michael J. Flynn's election school which was attended by 1,950 of these election officials is said to have been the first school of its kind and its success is another forward step in good government.

Mr. Flynn is deservedly proud of his permanent registration system and the citizens of Cook County are indeed fortunate to have a public official of the integrity and capability he has shown.

Mr. Flynn asks all interested persons to call upon him freely for any information they may desire relative to the election system. The services of his office are at your command, he says, and he will be more than willing to answer personally all letters to him on that subject.

'Fin' Vanishes Off Bar; Chicago Cop Threatens Jobs of County Police

Because he believed his five dollars disappeared from the bar at Ray's Tavern, Milwaukee avenue, near River road, a Mr. Hardley of the Chicago police department, called the Sheriff's highway police and demanded that they search the cash register for the missing bill.

The fact that a warrant was necessary for such action provoked the Chicago officer to such straits that he stormed out of the tavern with the warning that he would see that "they lost their jobs."

Marie Huehr—In memory of our dearly beloved daughter and sister who passed away two years ago, January 20.

The sun and moon are shining,
On a lone and silent grave,
Beneath lies one we dearly love,
But whom we could not save;
Friends may think we have forgotten,
When at times they see us smile,
Little do they know the heartaches
That our smile hides all the while.

Bensenville Fives Triumph Over Wauconda

MAC SAYS

—By—

Gerald A. Mc Elroy

The upset of the week was Lake Forest's defeat of Niles Center 38-36 in two over time periods. Niles had been undefeated and Lake Forest scored their first win of the season by an amazing show of power.

Barrington's defeat of Palatine while not as unexpected, was much more decisive. It was Barrington's first win in six games and eliminated Palatine from the conference race at least temporarily.

Friday's upsets took a little of the edge off this week's head liners but they still rank as the best week-end of games the fans will see in the conference this season.

Niles vs. Leyden

Niles and Leyden, in second place with a single defeat, clash on the Leyden court with honors even. Leyden's only defeat was at Niles in the opening of the season. Last week we would have picked Leyden to win this game. This week we are inclined toward Niles. Niles has at last lost a game and we believe a team like Isaacson's aggregation will come back stronger than ever now that some of the pressure is off. However, Leyden has been priming all season for this return match.

Ela at Palatine

At Palatine the Pirates will have the whole conference backing them to drop Ela from the undefeated class. Palatine will probably be the toughest opponent the Ela Bears have left on their schedule since the game is away from home. Palatine may be expected to bounce right back after their Barrington set back and give the Ela team a battle royal. If Palatine can keep a tight defense on the narrow floor and slow down the Bears, they may win. The hopes of all the teams with title ambitions depend on this game.

Cards-Bronchos Clash

Another close battle is expected at Arlington where the Barrington Bronchos will be out to get revenge on another neighborhood rival. Now that the Bronchs have kicked over the traces for a victory they may be hard to stop. The two teams are tied with a victory and five defeats.

Warren Making Comeback

At Libertyville the Wildcats take on a greatly improved Warren five which has been hitting a fast pace since the holidays. Libertyville's big floor may be an advantage but Warren's speed should make it another close one. Libertyville won by a close margin in the first meeting.

Wauconda Out to Win

Wauconda entertains Grant and hopes for a victory, not only to climb out of the cellar, but to even the count with their neighbor who won 30-22 early in the season. Wauconda is the under dog even though playing at home.

Antioch Has Tough One

Antioch will have a tough time staying in the race when they go to Lake Forest. The Indians have lost but one game and must win to keep pace with the other leaders. We think Lake Forest has an edge, playing at home.

Two Leaders Will Lose

The big games in the lightweight division are at Palatine and Lake Forest. Palatine, Lake Forest, Antioch, Ela and Leyden are all up there with but one defeat. Friday's games will eliminate two of the first four named and the closest game is predicted between Palatine and Ela. Palatine won at Ela 25-24 in the first of the season.

Record for Season

Ernie Rice of Barrington holds the season's record for points in a single game as a result of his "hot" shooting in the Palatine game Friday when he made 21 counters on seven baskets and seven out of 10 free throws. Rice had only one short basket, making his record all the more outstanding.

Rose Scores 20

Rose of Lake Forest was the big poison as far as Niles was concerned Friday when he scored 20 points to drop them from the conference lead. He and his teammate, Moore, scored 33 of Lake Forest's 38 points.

Effinger in Hero Role

Up at Antioch Effinger scored the winning basket in the closing seconds of the game as the Indians came from behind to win 29-28. Effinger scored 13 points.

Palatine Relays April 30

It is a little early to think about track, but a number of inquiries have come in concerning the sixth annual Palatine relays and the date they are to be held. The date has been set for Saturday, April 30, and the events and awards will be quite similar to those of last year. Fourteen schools attended the meet last spring which was won by Arlington, who nosed out Libertyville 53½ to 52. Any suggestions concerning this meet and the method of handling it would be welcomed.

Warren Wins at Home

Warren has won three out of five and the victories have all been on the home court. Kelton's team has no individual scoring star as do many of the teams of the conference. He does have, however, about five boys who seem to be unusually consistent in getting about four to six points apiece each game. Ela is another team which has its scoring well distributed among four boys who have averaged about seven points apiece each game.

Great Ski Meet

Since living in Palatine, we have attended the annual ski meet at Fox River Grove on numerous occasions, but the one this year had all the rest beat a mile in the number of really good ski jumpers entered. If you have never attended one of these meets you have missed one of the most thrilling sporting events of the winter season in the Chicago area. We saw Crawford of Libertyville at the meet and he seemed to be getting a big kick out of it.

Arlington-Palatine Next Week

The old Pirate-Cardinal series will be renewed again next week at Palatine. Palatine won both games at Arlington by narrow margins earlier in the season and Cardinal fans will be out to see the scores reversed while Palatine rooters will all be there to boost for another double victory.

Barrington Scores Freely; Beat Pirates

Rice Gets 21 Points; Pirate Lights Take First Conference Loss

Barrington trimmed Palatine in both games Friday for the Pirates' first double defeat of the year. Barrington's basket shooting, which at times was nothing short of sensational, enabled them to gain revenge for earlier defeats at Palatine. The heavyweight count was 39-27 and the lightweight 25-20.

The heavyweight game was just too much Rice as the Barrington forward collected 21 points on seven field goals and seven out of 10 free throws. Most of his shots were from long range. Barrington scored nine long shots out of 27 attempts.

Barrington picked up an 8-4 lead in the first period which they increased 18-11 at the half. The work of the Palatine guards under the basket was particularly poor in this period. Rice made 10 points in the first half.

The Bronchos really won the game in the third period when Rice had his hottest streak of shooting. In one stretch of three minutes of the third quarter Barrington sank four out of five long shots. They had increased their margin to 29-17 at the end of the quarter and maintained the lead by accurate free throwing in the last period.

Palatine's floor work was especially bad. Everyone had a mania for dribbling and losing the ball. The passing was the worst of the season. In spite of this, Palatine scored enough to have been in the ball game had they been able to stop Rice successfully. Quite a lot of the margin was made at the foul line where Barrington sank 13 of 18 while Palatine made but seven out of 20. Barrington made 32.5% of shots from the field and Palatine 22.2%.

It was Barrington's first conference victory and Palatine's second defeat, dropping them to fifth place.

First Defeat Suffered

Palatine's lights got a poor start, trailing 11-5 the first quarter, due to the failure of the Pirate guards to cover Barrington's fast break. The score at the half was 20-10. Grueling made 10 points for Barrington in the first half.

Palatine fought an uphill battle and was rapidly overtaking Barrington in the last period when the game ended. Barrington made but one field goal in the last half. Rennack and Hahnfeldt, Palatine's leading scorers, were way off, making but two baskets in 18 shots between them. Stewart made eight points for Palatine and Grueling 12 for Barrington. Palatine made but five baskets in 34 shots.

Arlington defeated Glenview 48 to 31 in the Lutheran Basketball league Saturday evening.

Laseke and "Red" Weisgerber led the victors in points with fourteen and eleven respectfully. There was no stopping the local team once they got started in their second straight victory in the second half of the schedule.

Palatine came back strong after losing to Arlington the week before and beat Roselle 44 to 33. R. Hinrichs was the outstanding scorer, collecting half the total points for his team. G. Dierking played his usual game and collected 18 points.

Norwood Park beat Park Ridge 36 to 34 last Saturday in a very close game. Both teams were pretty evenly matched. The victors played one of their best games of the season. Their passing helped them no end to win. Park Ridge played without the aid of their able forward, Herman, who is laid up with a bad knee injury.

A revived Itasca team defeated Des Plaines in the second game on Sunday afternoon, 56 to 40. Even with their entire squad present, the Des Plaines boys couldn't keep up to the hard driving Itasca boys. E. Mensching led his team in scoring. Kaitschuk was high point man for Des Plaines, collecting 24 points.

Arlington ran their string of victories to three straight when they downed River Grove 58 to 21 in the third game of the afternoon. The tall boys took advantage of their height in scoring their victory. Their fast break and passing was also a deciding factor.

Here's how Bill Rogan of Minneapolis scored an "impossible" 330 in a league game: Rogan scored twelve consecutive strikes for a perfect 300 score. But his team was tied with the opposing team. Under A. B. C. rules, ties are played off with an extra frame. Rogan then scored three more strikes in a row. And the rules provide that the scores of tie-breaking frames are added to the original score. Therefore, Rogan's official score for the total of eleven frames was —an "Impossible" 330.

"Well, Des Plaines went and did it."

The Lions club bowlers from that place knocked off the Palatine bowlers last Monday night two out of three games and went into a tie for first place.

E. Schulze aided by P. Flaminio led the Des Plaines Lions to victory. Schulze bowled a 586 series and Flaminio was right behind with a 530 series.

Collignon despite his 558 series was not able to pull the Palatine mineralites through to two or more wins. His second game of 204 helped a great deal to give Palatine their high game of the evening, a score of 869.

Arlington Heights finally broke into the win column by defeating Mt. Prospect in the second game of their series. Dreyer with his score of 222 had much to do with it.

The second round of the tournament will begin next Monday night at the Pickwick alleys in Park Ridge. Bowling starts at 7:00 p. m. and Lions other than bowlers are invited to be present. The scores of last Monday night's bowling follow:

Koppen, Wauconda, Leads Conf. Scorers

by GERALD A. McELROY

According to unofficial reports Koppen of Wauconda is the leading scorer of the Northwest conference to date with 67 points followed closely by Boyk of Niles Center with 64 and Witort of Leyden with 60. Nelson of Leyden is fourth with 54 and Haemker of Palatine ranks fifth with 52.

Box scorers have not been sent in on some of the games and a number of coaches did not return a questionaire sent out during Christmas vacation asking for information on individual scoring. The records of Lake Forest, Warren, Antioch, Bensenville, and Barrington are slightly incomplete. We lack box scores for the following games: Warren-Lake Forest, Grant-Bensenville, Barrington-Niles Center, Antioch-Wauconda. Some schools having played more games than others have their players ranking higher in the list.

The list of boys who have scored more than 20 points is printed below with the number of games that each has been reported to have played.

'Mac' Asks Coaches If They Like New Rules

by GERALD A. McELROY

We recently sent out a questionaire to the coaches asking for information of various kinds. Among the questions asked was "What do you think of the new rules in basketball at this stage in the season's schedule?" We have answers from about half the coaches.

Coach Isaacson of Niles answers, "The boys as well as the coach, like the new rules very much." Coach Wesner of Ela has the one word answer, "Good." Rasinski of Grant believes the game is a little faster and says, "I am in favor of the new rules." Watson of Leyden remarks "O.K."

Too Hard on Players

On the other side we find Coach Grose of Arlington who has a good criticism. Quoting Grose, "It makes an interesting game for the spectators, but I am convinced the coaches are faced with two possibilities—that of needing more substitutes or finishing the game with well worn out boys. Herrmann of Wauconda, with the smallest squad of players in the conference is convinced that the game under the new rules is "Too hard on the players, but makes it more interesting for the fans."

A Fair Criticism

The answer that comes the closest to our own opinion of the change in rules is that given by "Bob" Kelton, athletic director of Warren township high school. According to Kelton, "much of the science of the game has been discarded for more open, loose, offensive basketball. Personally, I don't like it in its entirety, but feel if a medium could be struck, the game would probably be more interesting and yet hold some of its scientific and individual merits which now seem to have been discarded."

We Like the Change

We are very much in favor of the elimination of the center jump but feel that something should be done for high schools to slow up the play after a basket has been scored. Whether it would be giving more time to put the ball in play, requiring the official to handle the ball, or giving the offensive team more than 10 seconds to bring the ball across the line, we do get know. However, we like the game just as it is much better than under the old system of the center jump.

Lake Forest Knocks Niles Center From 1st Place; 2 Overtimes

Lake Forest handed Niles Center its first defeat of the season Friday, winning a thriller at Niles in two over time periods 38-36. It was the first victory in four starts for the Lakers who have been gaining strength right along.

It was Rose, the only returning veteran from last year's champ team, who paced Lake Forest's attack with 20 points. Rose made seven baskets and six free throws and was ably assisted by Moore who collected six buckets and one free shot for 13 points.

Lake Forest led all the first half holding a quarter lead of 14-8 and a half time margin of 18-13. Niles closed the gap in the third period knotting the count at 25 all. The score stood 32 up at the end of the regulation playing period. Kluesing, giant Niles guard, was lost on fouls.

For Niles, Eby and Boyk, had 11 points apiece and Huels scored nine.

The lightweight game was a walkaway for Lake Forest after the first period which ended 10-8. Lake Forest made 21 points to Niles' two in the last half to win 31-10.

Alumni, Karstens To Play In Double Header

by CHARLIE O'HAGAN

The Karstens Mortician girls will attempt to make their record 500 per cent for the season when they meet the Cary, Illinois girls at the Hi Gym next Wednesday at 8 o'clock.

The Karstens team has won three out of their last four games defeating Cary, Lombard, and Glenview, while losing to another Glenview team. However, the girls have scored 88 points to their opponents 62 in these last four games, which is a rather impressive record in this class of ball. Be there next Wednesday and boost for your home town girls to reach the 50-50 point.

The Alumni, thus far undefeated will endeavor to continue their winning ways. Last week they defeated Genoa City, Wis., in a three-quarter struggle, pulling away in the final quarter to a 38-23 victory. In their game this week they will tangle with the strong Cary Merchants. These two teams, together with Crystal Lake have the strongest teams in this section.

Efforts are being made to arrange cards for your enjoyment and your attendance is the only medium we have for gauging our success, so please turn out for the games at the Hi gym every Wednesday. When attending our games we would appreciate it very much if every regular attendant would try to bring an old friend and make a new fan.

Until next Wednesday at 8 p. m. the Karstens-Alumni teams will be waiting.

We Challenged; We Met The Enemy; They Were Ours

The above tells in a few words what happened last Friday night at the Arlington alleys when the Suburban Times, from boss, himself, down to the devil, came to Arlington to bowl employees of the Herald office.

We did not know whom we would rather defeat than those fellows from Des Plaines, but we realize there is another day coming and they may get equal pleasure on the return game.

Anyway it was a great game. Our Eddie was the anchor man and his calmness in rolling strikes seemed a little upsetting to the big shot of the enemy, who boasts an average of 199.

Ralph, our devil attempted to take the foreman of the Times outfit and nearly did so.

Davis avtraged 158, which is pretty good for a mere compositor and Dick, the lino, who was experiencing his first matched game, rolled an average of 131.

The surprise of the evening was the score of Huf, the ad man. With two games over 200, that week great things were expected but as he says, "it was not necessary," and besides he is saving his strikes for the return match.

Incidentaly, the Herald bowlers were given 100 per cent support by a team of rooters with Rose as the cheer leader and last but not least, the Coach, Arneman had the boys in peak form for that important series.

People are prone to blame accidents on weather conditions. The human being never wants to blame himself for failing to do somethings that might have prevented an accident.

A study of highway conditions made recently indicated that 75 per cent of the accidents occurred on dry roads. 85 per cent of the accidents happened in clear weather.

Here is an amazing fact—95 per cent of the vehicles involved in all automobile accidents in 1935 were apparently in good condition. We have repeatedly warned that brakes should not be overlooked. Braking power is needed; good lights are needed. These are mechanical contrivances that must be checked regularly to keep the automobile in perfect condition.

But the driver must be in perfect condition also.

Bisons Flail Opponents In Second Halves; Lights Win First

Bensenville moved up another notch in the conference standings by winning both games at Wauconda Friday night. The lightweights turned in their first victory by a count of 31-18 while the heavies came from behind to win 34-27.

The Bison regulars trailed 9-7 at the quarter and 15-13 at the half. In the third period Bensenville gained an advantage of 23-21 which they increased in the closing minutes of the game when their offense really began to click.

Cramer, Leverenz, and L. Baumgartner led the Bensenville scoring while Koppen, Smith, and Dickson were Wauconda's best. Koppen's nine points raised his season total to 67 in six games to top the conference.

Bensenville has shown great improvement since the early games, having won two out of their last three.

Lights Really Go

Bensenville's lightweights found themselves Friday in the second half of their game when they tallied 24 points to run away with Wauconda 31-18. The little Bisons showed little in the first half when they trailed 10-7, but they came back strong to take a 20-15 lead in the third period and then clinched their first victory with 11 points in the last quarter to Wauconda's three.

Kvevli and Linderman were Bensenville's stars. Kvevli scored 16 points. Bensenville turned in some nice pass work and scored all their baskets from inside the free throw line. Bensenville made 19 field goals, 11 out of 20 free throws and was charged with 13 fouls. Wauconda had seven field goals, four out of 20 free throws and committed 16 penalties.

Ettinger, Antioch, Gets Winning Basket In 29-28 Libertyville Game

Antioch came from behind in the last quarter to overcome a six point Libertyville lead and defeat the Wildcats Friday 29-28. Libertyville was leading 28-27 with 20 seconds of play remaining, but Ettinger who scored 13 points for the Indians, came through with the winning basket.

Antioch led most of the first half and was in front 16-14 at the intermission. Libertyville appeared to have the game in the big with a good third quarter when ended 24-18 in favor of Bergstrom's Wildcats.

Leading all the way, Antioch's lights won their third victory in four games by taming the Wildcats 22-15 in a very well played ball game. While the scoring was limited the fine ball handling and fast playing of both teams gave the fans an interesting game to watch. The best players for Antioch were Brogan, Burke, and Harvey and for Libertyville the playing of Bell, Jaeger and Brown stood out.

Warren Takes Grant in Defense Game

In a tight defensive game at Gurnee Friday, Grant was handed a 22-17 defeat by Kelton's scrappy Warren five. The score was six up at the quarter, 15-10 Warren at the half and 16-14 for Warren at the close of the third period.

The game was featured by poor shooting and wild passing, but both teams were good defensively. Howard of Grant and E. McCann and Portegys of Warren were the outstanding players.

Grant won the lightweight game 17-15 after Warren had started out with a first period lead of six to three. Both teams were poor on free throws. Both had 19 attempts and Grant won the game with seven good ones to Warren's five.

Bowling Notes

by HERB HAMMERL

It seemed like a 600 night for a lot of the boys, some getting their first 600 series of the season and to some it was just another 600. The pins are falling a lot better and we have a lot more bowlers in the high 180 class than we've had in a long time. The most improved bowler to date is Eddie Duenn. Eddie seems to have found himself and is climbing very fast in the standing. His 602 was high for the night, and also second high for the season. More power to you jeweler.

On 1 and 2 Krause Market took the Elevators for two games. The painter was hot again with 631 and "Romo" came through with 622. Not bad for a couple of guys that are getting along in years.

On 3 and 4, the Blatz Beers and Cafe provided the excitement for the night. Five 600 series turned up in this match, and Wally Tesch added to the excitement by cutting down the 6-7-10 railroad. 600 series were by Ed. Duenn 662, Ray Diebali 618, Herb Hammerl 611, Wally Meyer and John "D" 607 apiece. Blatz totaled 2950 for second high of the season so far. Of the 30 games bowled on 3 and 4, 14 games went over 200.

On 5 and 6 El Rand had a good chance to take the Hamms for at least two games, but in the first game the boys couldn't stand pressure and the Hamms finally won it by 13 pins. Hamms also won the last game. "Jeck" Meyer was high with 615 and Irv. Kehe took the dollar with 212. A word to the wise. Never wear black suspenders when you bowl on 5 and 6.

The Maple Maulers have challenged the old Jeweler team of a few years ago to match game which will come to a head at 2:30 Sunday afternoon. See you then.

Moccasin Related to Copperhead

The water moccasin is a brownish snake from two to three feet in length and upon being disturbed he will display the inside of his mouth, which is about the color of cotton. The moccasin belongs to the order of pit vipers and is closely related to the copperhead. There is another water snake—Natrix—that closely resembles the moccasin, but he is harmless.

William H. Senne was born in Palatine, Ill., Jan. 2, 1866. Feb. 25, 1866 he was baptized and March 24, 1880, he was confirmed in St. John's Church, Plum Grove, Ill., by the same pastor. The Rev. R. Krueger. Oct. 18, 1891, he was united in marriage with Miss Louise Homeyer, of Palatine, by the Rev. J. Dorjahn at Plum Grove. Four sons were born to this union; William, Edward, Arthur and George. For 46 years the couple lived happily on the farm where Mr. Senne peacefully passed away.

During these years Mr. Senne has been an active member of the St. Johns Church at Plum Grove. For many years he has been a member of the church council and took with great interest a leading part in the welfare of the congregation. His departure is keenly felt as a loss not only by the direct family but also by the friends and members of the congregation.

Mr. Senne in general enjoyed good health. Only the last five weeks when he was confined to his bed.

One son, William, preceded the father in death.
